

Gary R. McCarthy
Mayor

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
CITY OF SCHENECTADY
NEW YORK

City Hall, 105 Jay Street, Rm 111
Schenectady, N.Y. 12305-1938
(518) 382-5000
Fax: (518) 382-5272
gmccarthy@schenectadyny.gov

Deputy Chief Donald Mareno - Deputy Chief Mareno is a 23 year veteran of the Schenectady Fire Department. He is a New York State paramedic and a Hazardous Materials Specialist. His previous assignments included Captain in charge of the training division and Director of Emergency Medical Services. Donald also devotes countless hours to city charities and departmental functions. He is a graduate of HVCC and Linton High School. Deputy Chief Mareno is married to his wife, MaryAnne, and they have two children.

Captain David Massaro - Captain Massaro is a 13 year veteran of the Schenectady Fire Department. He is a New York State paramedic, Hazardous Materials Specialist, and a New York State Code Enforcement Officer. David holds an associate's degree in Fire Protection Technology and Emergency Management from Schenectady County Community College and is a graduate of Niskayuna High School. Captain Massaro is married to his wife, Sherry, and they have two children.

Lieutenant Craig Macherone - Lieutenant Macherone is a 9 year veteran of the Schenectady Fire Department. He is a New York State paramedic and a member of the Tactical Medic Team. Craig obtained an associate's degree in Fire Protection Technology and Emergency Management from Schenectady County Community College and is a graduate of Scotia Glenville High School. Lieutenant Macherone is married to his wife, Josepha, and has one child.

Director of Development Jaclyn Mancini received her Master's degree in Public Administration with a concentration in local government management and planning from the Rockefeller College of Public Affairs and Policy at the University of Albany and her Bachelor's degree in Political Science and Urban Studies from Northeastern University. For the last five years, she has worked under the direction of the Schenectady County Manager assisting with the administration and management of Schenectady County functions. In previous employment, Ms. Mancini has worked for the Dukakis Center for Urban and Regional Policy and the SUNY Research Foundation and brings with her a cross-systems knowledge of local community development efforts.

- MORE -

Corporation Counsel Carl Falotico has served as the Deputy Corporation Counsel at the City of Schenectady since 2012. In that role he has overseen the City's prosecution of City Code and Building Code violations, been responsible for labor and employment matters, and has handled the majority of the City's in-house litigation. Before working at the City of Schenectady, Carl was an Assistant District Attorney at the Schenectady County District Attorney Office. While there he was a member of the Special Victim Unit, and specialized in the prosecution of domestic violence and sex crime felonies. Carl received his Juris Doctor from St. John's University School of Law. While there he was the Editor-In-Chief of the New York International Law Review, and had two articles published in law journals.

Deputy Corporation Counsel Rachael Ward has served as Assistant Corporation Counsel for the City of Schenectady since September of 2013. She has been primarily responsible for all matters concerning property in the City including property tax foreclosures and resale of city owned property. She has litigated multiple tax certioraris for the City and been involved in the resolution of labor disputes concerning city employees. She has also worked with the Development office to implement several initiatives to increase home owner occupancy and raise property value in the City. Rachael received her Juris Doctor from Albany Law School and her Master's in Business Administration from Union Graduate College. Rachael is a lifelong resident of Schenectady.

* * *