

Schenectady County Human Rights Commission

MEDIA

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
3823 office
July 2016
cell

Media Contacts: Angelicia A. Morris (518) 377-

Executive Director (518) 210-5036

Schenectady County Human Rights Commission MLK Jr. Coalition Community Memorial Service

(Schenectady County, NY)- The Schenectady County Human Rights Commission MLK Jr. Coalition will host a community memorial service in response to the tragedies in Baton Rouge, LA; St. Paul, MN and Dallas, Texas which took place this last week. These tragic events took the lives of 2 civilians, 5 police officers who were killed in the line of duty and injuring 7 others, many of whom are part of the law enforcement community. Please join Executive Director, Angelicia Morris, honorary guests, faith leaders, law enforcement and community members as we come together to remember the lives that were loss in these tragedies.

WHO: Schenectady County Human Rights Commission MLK Jr. Coalition
Community Faith Leaders
Local Elected Officials
Schenectady County Law Enforcement member's leaders and community members

WHAT: A community memorial service in response to the tragedies in Baton Rouge, LA; St. Paul, MN and Dallas, Texas which took place this week. These tragic events took the lives of 2 civilians, 5 police officers who were killed in the line of duty and injuring others, many of whom are part of the law enforcement community. Please join Executive Director, Angelicia Morris, honorary guests, faith leaders, law enforcement and community members as we come together to remember the lives that were loss in these tragedies.

WHERE: The Bridge Church, 735 Crane Street, Schenectady, NY 12303

WHEN: July 11, 2016 at 5:30pm

WHY: The MLK Jr. Coalition of the Schenectady County Human Rights Commission is charged with assisting the Commission in honoring the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. by fostering mutual respect and understanding among all racial, religious, sexual orientation, nationality and other groups in the county.

The Schenectady County Human Rights Commission was established in 1965 by the Schenectady County Legislature to foster mutual respect and enhance understanding among all racial, religious and ethnic groups in Schenectady County, and to assist individuals in securing their constitutional rights. It is composed of 15 Commissioners appointed by the County Legislature.

Fostering mutual respect and enhancing understanding among all people

###