PRESS RELEASE

Mayor McCarthy Urges Residents to Exercise Caution While Traveling

Priority Street Parking Restrictions Go Into Effect After 3" of Snow Accumulation

SCHENECTADY – Mayor Gary McCarthy reminded residents to prepare for the forecasted snow storm and priority street plowing. The National Weather Service currently projects Schenectady to receive approximately 8-12 inches of snow Wednesday and into Thursday, creating hazardous driving conditions Wednesday evening.

“We ask residents and evening commuters to please exercise caution while on the roads this evening,” Mayor McCarthy said. “City crews will be keeping the streets clear throughout the evening as snow accumulates.”

Vehicles parked on priority streets after the accumulation of three inches of snow may be ticketed or towed. Parking on priority streets may resume only after the entire length of the street has been cleared of snow to the curb. Residents are also urged to please clear one shovel-width of snow around fire hydrants.

Priority streets are as follows:

- Van Vranken Avenue
- Nott Street (Erie Boulevard to Wendell Avenue)
- Union Street
- Eastern Avenue
- Brandywine Avenue (State Street to Rugby Road)
- McClellan Street (State Street to Rugby Road)
- State Street
- Erie Boulevard (State Street to I-890)
- Albany Street (Veeder Avenue to Elm Street)
- Altamont Avenue
- Schuyler Street (Michigan Avenue to Altamont Avenue)
- Michigan Avenue
- Crane Street
- Chrysler Avenue
- Broadway (State Street to the city line)
- Campbell Avenue (Broadway to Fairview Avenue)

Please be sure to check your local news reports for any updates, Mayor McCarthy added. For additional information regarding snow and parking restrictions, residents may call the Bureau of Service at 518-382-5151, the Police Department at 518-382-5211, or visit the City’s website: www.cityofschenectady.com.
