

Schenectady Police Department

531 Liberty Street

Schenectady, New York 12305

Phone: (518) 382-5200 Fax: (518) 382-5299

Chief of Police – Eric S. Clifford

Primary Public Information Officer – Sergeant Matthew Dearing

Secondary Public Information Officers:

Sergeant Jeffrey McCutcheon

Detective Timothy Rizzo

Sergeant Nicholas Mannix

<http://www.cityofscheneectady.com/334/Police-Department>

Subject: Random Santa Drop-Offs

Date/Time: Tuesday December 11th, 2018 / 15:00

Sgt. M. Dearing

On Saturday December 22, 2018 William Rivas, from #SaveOURStreets and officers from the Schenectady Police Department will be dropping off Christmas presents to families and children within the city of Schenectady. The Schenectady Police Department and Mr. Rivas have teamed up again this year with BROWN Transportation who has graciously donated the use of a school bus for this event. Officers from the Schenectady Police Department will be at the Hamilton Hill Arts Center at 9:45 a.m. to load a BROWN Transportation school bus with Christmas presents. From 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. officers from the department and volunteers associated with #SaveOURStreets will drive throughout the City of Schenectady dropping off Christmas presents to families and children.

The BROWN Transportation school bus will be stopping at the following locations:

10:30 a.m. Joe Allen Apartments/Wingate Apartments

11 a.m. C.O.C.O.A. House Inc.

11:30 a.m. Steinmetz Homes/Southgate Apartments

12 p.m. Yates Village Apartments

12:30 Proctors Theater.

Any community member wishing to donate a new toy/item to this event can drop them off at the Schenectady Police Department (531 Liberty Street Schenectady, NY 12305) until the evening of Friday December 21, 2018.